CHAPTER 01

GENESIS 2:4-9

LIFE FROM THE DUST

God formed Adam from the dust of the ground and breathed life into him. God planted a beautiful garden in Eden and placed Adam there.

CHAPTER 02

GENESIS 2:15-17

A GARDEN TO CARE FOR

Adam received meaningful work: cultivate and protect the garden. He could eat from every tree except one - the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

"You may freely eat from every other tree."

CHAPTER 03

GENESIS 2:18-25

NOT ALONE

Adam named the animals, but none was a partner like him. God made Eve, and Adam welcomed her with joy. Together they shared life in God's garden.

CHAPTER 04

GENESIS 3:1-5

THE TWISTED QUESTION

The serpent questioned God's words and goodness. Eve saw that the forbidden fruit looked desirable. The choice before her was whether to trust God.

"Did God really say...?"

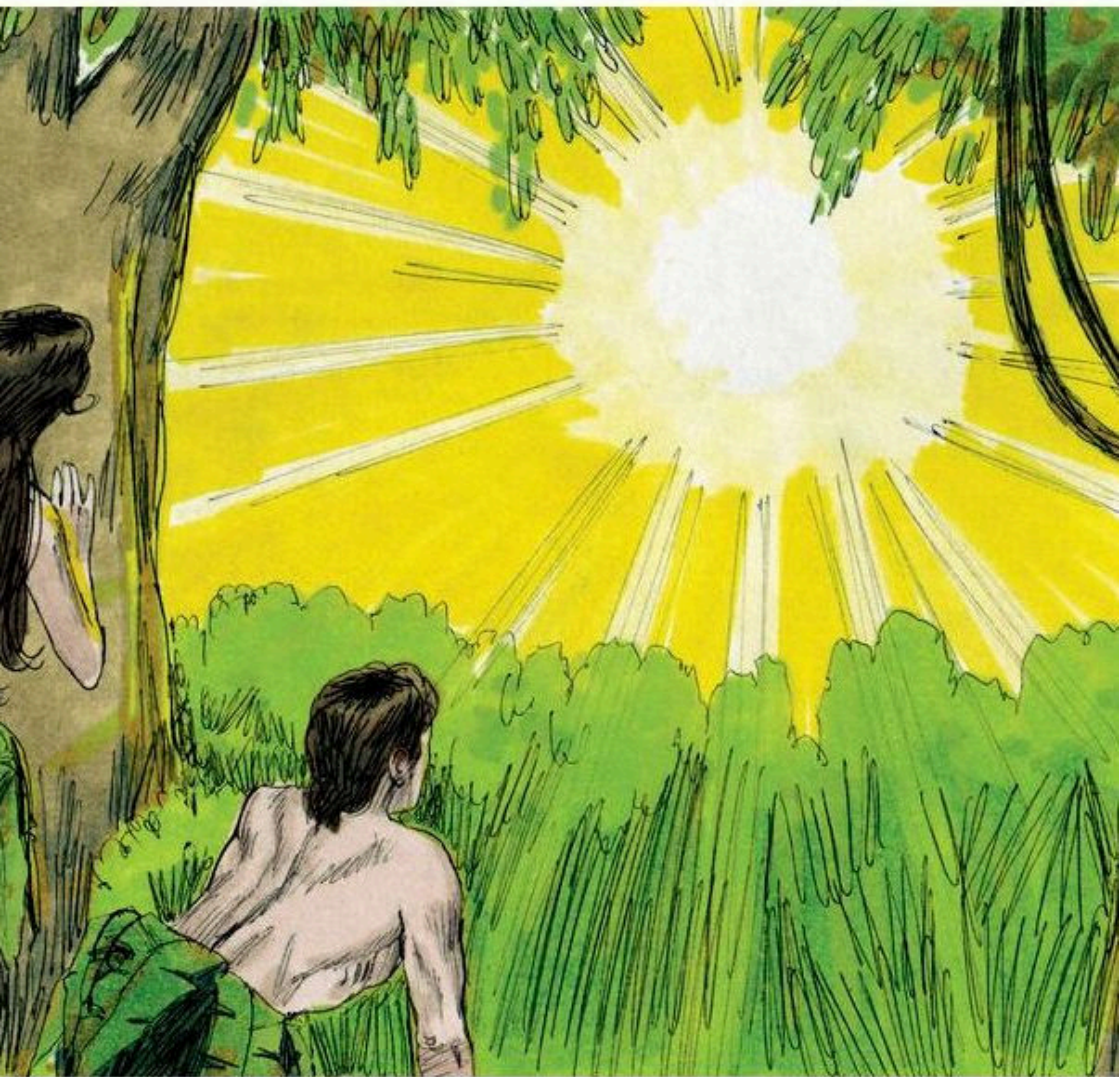

CHAPTER 05

GENESIS 3:6-8

A CHOICE THAT CHANGED EVERYTHING

Eve ate the fruit and gave some to Adam, who ate too. Shame entered their hearts, and they tried to hide from each other and from God.

CHAPTER 06

GENESIS 3:9-13

WHERE ARE YOU?

God called to Adam. Instead of confessing honestly, Adam and Eve blamed others. Yet God brought their disobedience into the light.

"Where are you?"

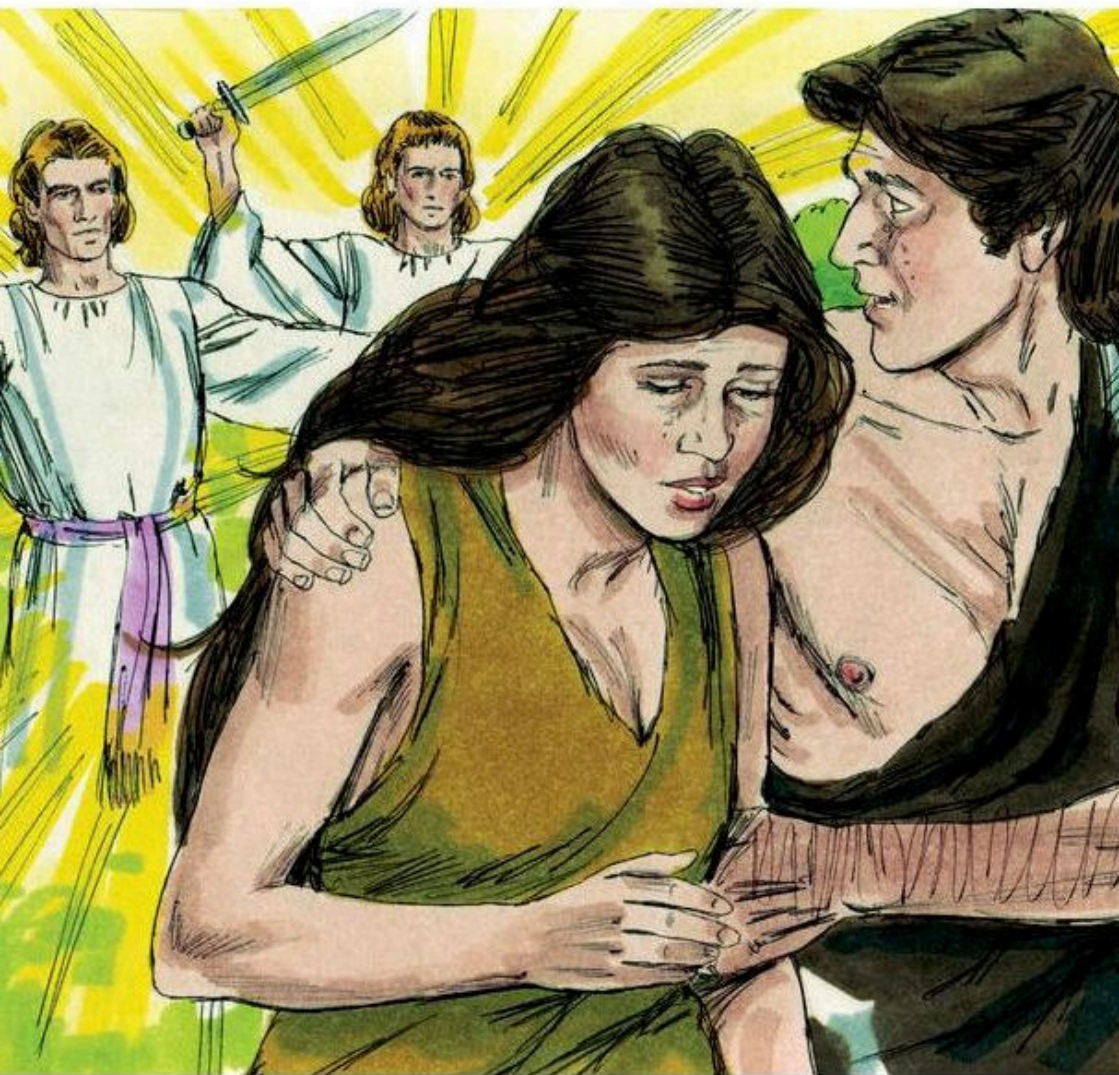

CHAPTER 07

GENESIS 3:14-21

CONSEQUENCES AND CARE

Their choice brought pain, struggle and death into human life. Even then, God clothed Adam and Eve. His care did not disappear when they failed.

CHAPTER 08

GENESIS 3:22-24

EAST OF EDEN

Adam and Eve left the garden and could not return to the tree of life. But God had not abandoned humanity. The Bible's great rescue story was only beginning.

"God still seeks, covers and calls people back to Him."

- 1 Why do you think the serpent tried to make Eve doubt God's goodness?
- 2 What could Adam and Eve have done instead of hiding and blaming?
- 3 How does God's care for them give us hope after a wrong choice?
